Question: How many former spouses will be affected by the offset in the Intelligence Authorizat<sup>o</sup>n Act for Fiscal Year 1987?

Answer: Pursuant to the FY1987 Intelligence Authorization Act, the survivor annuity of a former spouse will be reduced by the amount of the self-earned annuity. To date, we have [ ] qualified former spouses who are receiving lifetime annuities under the Intelligence Authorization Act for FY1988. Of these [ ] qualified former spouses, [ ] are eligible for survivor benefits under the FY1987 Intelligence Authorization Act. Of the [ ] former spouses who are eligible to receive a survivor annuity, five are currently receiving a self-earned Federal annuity, five are Federal employees who may be eligible for a self-earned Federal annuity and [ ] are not eligible for a self-earned Federal annuity.

Question: What would the former spouses survivors benefit be after the offset has been applied?

Answer: The following is a break-down of the five retired former spouses and their annuities and the offset:

Monthly Former Spouse Self-Earned Federal Annuity	Monthly Lifetime Annuity Under P.L.100-178	Monthly Survivor Annuity Under P.L.99-569 Before Offset	Monthly Survivor Annuity Under P.L.99-569 After Offset

We have no way of knowing what the amount of the self-earned annuity will be for the five former spouses who are currently Federal employees or for any former spouse who is a Federal employee who has applied for benefits and is waiting for their former spouse to retire.
